Mum's dearest

What's this - what's this? you think you may not come? Godness gracious you can't be serious.
What if the Speaking Choir doesn't give its real dress rehearsal? I don't think it's going to be so good anyway, & you can see a little how it's going to be. But T.Z.E. studio I think you would enjoy. I'm not one of the models, but I have to dress one of them, and work behind scenes. In between scenes girls are rendering piano solos & I'm not sure what else. But it's the only chance you'll have to see what it's like & it's the main thing T.Z.E. does. That's the program for Saturday night. Saturday afternoon Grannie Mitchell's original play is to be produced - it won the prize for the best play, & is awfully good. I'd like you to see it & meet Fannie. I like her tremendously.

Friday night is Dance Drama as I said, which I don't know anything about, but which ought to be good. At least we could see what it was.

Darling - you wouldn't be taking me from the girls, you'd just be pining in with me.
Only worse luck, both Helen & Hort are going away for the weekend so they can't meet you. But I never heard anything so absurd - I can be with them any day and it isn't every day I can have my mother come & see me. So - you will come, won't you? I can't wait until March 21st to see your new suit!

And as for work — 2 glorious surprises were sprung this morning. First I all Dr.
Wellman isn't going to be here Saturday PM. & Secondly, my paper on the 640 pages "Lost Companion" which was to have been due on Tuesday is postponed to the following Saturday!
So I won't have any work to speak of, & we can just do whatever we want to. Saturday PM. I'll cut my 8:40, because one of the girls is just going on reading her paper — and we'll have the day free, to do what we like.
But don't come prepared to do the Washing!

While I think of it, do we have a separate copy of Browning in the house?
I can't find my copy here. Never mind if you don't have time - but if you delights on it - grab it & stuff it in the bag. But don't let it make you miss the train. Can you get the 3:40 from Albany? Have a violent headache & indisposition in the ~~morning~~ afternoon? That means Framingham 8:30. Sorry Terry isn't around, but get off the bus at the College Quadrangle, & I'll be there.

Incidentally, room & meals at my expense please - I'm a working girl you know - & I love to spend my money! Arguments superfluous - you're coming & staying here in the Dome - & we're both taking a holiday! Unless I hear you've missed the train & jumped the track, heaven forbid either - I want you to come. Will be looking for you pronto.
Love & Party Finger.
